

V. M. C. CRIPPLED, BUT FULL OF FIGHT

Cadets' Eleven Will Play Baltimore City College Team To-Day.

Lexington, Va., October 24.—The V. M. C. cadets, after one day of rest following the Virginia game, reported for practice on the hill Tuesday afternoon. Owing to the fact that a number of the men were laid up with slight injuries, the practice was held in the gymnasium. The backs, Balm, Burress and Oakes, have all been somewhat under the weather, although they report regularly and follow the practice. Cameron, who played last against Virginia on Saturday, is in the hospital with a bad knee. He will probably be out by to-morrow. Hawkes and Lowry, who played at the port, Lowry, the plucky left end who played the ball with a badly broken nose, is temporarily disabled.

Defects brought out in the struggle with Virginia have been given a large share of attention by the corps of coaches. The style of play on both offense and defense has been modified slightly. On Wednesday, after a short, snappy signal practice, the squad put in an hour of hard scrimmage, the coaches picking out and correcting defects as the game progressed.

Hutchinson, a new man, showed up well at half to-day as well as yesterday. The theoretical instruction and signal practice was longer, while the scrimmage was lighter, the coaches desiring to save the men as much as possible for the game with Baltimore City College to-morrow.

There is no gloom in camp, owing to the defeat of the team at Charlottesville a week ago. To the contrary, everybody concerned, coaches, team, cadets and alumni are well satisfied with the showing made in spite of the fact that the score might seem to savor of a walkaway. The reports to the effect that it was a walkaway are not based on facts for any who watched the game at Lambeth Field know that the Cadets' line was adamant to Virginia's attacks, that the ball, especially in the second quarter, was continually in Virginia's territory, and that the five-yard line, and finally the Cadet team never gave up and died fighting.

The next big game of the season will be in Richmond with A. & M. of North Carolina on November 8. This game which will probably be one of the best to be seen in the Capital City this year.

BOWLING

The Railroad Y. M. C. A. team sprang a double surprise on the Shiley Shoe Co. aggregation last night on the Newport alleys, when they walked away with all three games. Both teams used extra men to try and stem the tide but the railroad boys were on the job and secured the victory. Coach L. Smith was high man for the Y. M. C. A., with Parrish and Shiley dividing honors for the Shiley's.

Remarkable Christmas Present

Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Burrell Bros. Clipping Bureau of New York to watch every paper in America and to take up every item which appeared concerning the man.

The clipping people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this special man.

The history ends just after election, and the 20,642 newspaper items included everything, from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 3,000 sheets of paper, in a linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

At the head of each item is the name and date of paper clipped from, this information having been put in with a book typewriter. The words thus inserted amount to 168,892.

In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people as clerical clerks, sorters, counters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Burrell Bros. Clipping Bureau, and which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man Burrell, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed "Burrell, New York," will reach him with no delay.
